

My mom is the best hockey
mom because:

She's nice.

She does stuff for me.

She gets me stuff - for hockey.

She skates and helps me.

She coaches.

She demonstrates stuff - like doing stops.

She tells me to keep my stick down.

I think she is nice and pretty.

And she buys me toys.

She comes to all my games.

She says stuff like when I come off the ice, like I did a good job.

She says yeah — a lot
I love her.

And I love her being my coach with Dad.

She drives me to hockey.

Oh and she smiles a lot at hockey.
